Banquet, Renewals....

Our favorite activity—eating together—finds full expression on Sunday, June 3, at La Sorrentina Restaurant. For the third time, we'll be going to this Bensonhurst landmark for a delightful evening of conviviality. Please reserve now! This is always a popular event. See registration form inside!

It's about time to renew your membership in the American Guild of Organists for the 2007-2008 program year! The Guild is a large, active organization, and membership in it is a source of pride and professional encouragement for tens of thousands of people. If you're not an organist, you're still welcome to join us and explore the most magnificent musical instrument ever invented.

The Guild is both grass-roots and professional—an unusual combination in this over-specialized day and age. For professional and serious avocational organists, we have a superb certification program. This program inspires a bit of holy terror in its aspirants, but pays the richest of professional rewards. There is a joke that FAGO stands for "Formerly A Good Organist" and AAGO stands for "Almost A Good Organist," but that is strictly tongue in cheek. Aspire to these distinctions, work hard on them, be confident in a fair evaluation, and grow through them. If you seek the Collegueship or the Service Playing Certificate, or certification as a Choirmaster, you will also find yourself amply repaid for your efforts.

For those who are simply amazed and delighted by this vast musical machine we call home, the Guild offers you information, recitals, workshops, tours, and friendly interactions. The Brooklyn Chapter is unique in the Guild in that we annually honor a non-organist for his or her support of our field in an allied or cognate area.

You are also entitled to—no, expected to—vote in our local elections. Your nominating committee has worked hard to put together a good slate of candidates; please affirm it. Ballots will be received and counted up to the end of the Banquet, and the results announced at its conclusion.

Your summer plans are no doubt firming up. Are you planning on practicing? Learning new repertoire? Running through Hanon so as not to get rusty? Playing any recitals? Avoiding playing any recitals? Visiting other churches or synagogues to hear things from a fresh angle? Fishing? Playing Sudoku? The possibilities are limitless. Enjoy them. And have a terrific summer....beginning with the Banquet!

Soli Deo Gloria! Vivat rex instrumentorum!
